III. TRAINING INSTITUTE

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

1) About University

Seoul National University (SNU) was founded in 1946 as the first national university of Korea. SNU has the largest campus in Seoul and agricultural campus in PyongChang in Gangwon Province. Now it has 16 Colleges, 1 Graduate School and 11 Professional Schools with 2,609 full-time faculty members and 28,102 students enrolled in degree programs. SNU is ranked globally 7th in terms of SCI paper publications. SNU global standing is 36th in the world, and 11th in Asia by QS World University rankings (Source: SNU, August 2918)

The Graduate School of Public Administration (GSPA) at Seoul National University (SNU) is the first professional graduate school established in Korea and was founded on April 1, 1959. Since then, GSPA has been playing a crucial role in the development of public policy and administration education in Korea and GSPA graduates have been taking the lead in developing public policy and administration education in the nation. Therefore, the history of GSPA can also be called as the history of public administration in Korea.

Furthermore, for almost 60 years, GSPA has been committed to empowering students to become experts that successfully apply their knowledge and skills in responding to public issues to become high-ranking public officials in many aspects of government, as well as faculty and scholars in various public policy and administration schools in the nation. In this respect, GSPA can be considered as 'the cradle of national leaders' as the graduates of GSPA are demonstrating their ability by taking the lead not only in public field, but also in other various fields in the society.

The GSPA of Seoul National University is one of the top leading educational institutions in Asia that achieved its success through a world-class research and educational infrastructure, networks with developing countries and various practical training program. Furthermore, GSPA will take a leap to become one of the Global Top 5 administration, policy education and research institutions through Vision 2030 and plan to nurture leaders for public sectors who takes the lead in creative innovation.

As of December, 2018, 5,200 master's degree students and 2600 doctoral degree students had graduated from the GSPA, of which many became leaders in the Korean society as high-level public officials: former prime minister (1), former minister (20) and former vice minister (33), professors and researchers, politicians, journalists, and corporate leaders.

Global Master of Public Administration (GMPA) Program was launched in September 2011 with a combined effort of GSPA-SNU and KOICA with an objective of cultivating students' adaptive capacities that will add value to economic and social development in their home countries.

GMPA program consists of two different but highly relevant courses. It enables students to form a prominent global network between public officials from Korea and the countries which have a cooperative relationship with KOICA. The two master's courses include one for highly distinguished public officials from developing countries, and another for public officials appointed by the Ministry of Security and Public Administration, Republic of Korea.

So far 96 GMPA students from 33 different countries have graduated from GSPA-SNU. As of December 2018, 50 participants from 22 different countries and 22 participants from the South Korean government now attend GMPA program from August 2017. We also look forward to having new students in September 2018.
